PROCEDURE:

Print out the PowerPoint with notes prior to class. There are notes included with the slides that can be on the printed slides but won’t be seen by your students during the presentation.

Activity 1

1. Using The Country Goes to War PowerPoint, review events leading up to the bombardment of Fort Sumter.
2. Have students complete the Timeline Activity Sheet, filling in events as they appear in the PowerPoint.

Activity 2

1. Using the Blank Map of the U.S. in 1860, project the blank map for classroom viewing.
2. Hand out the Blank Map of U.S. in 1860.
3. As a group, color the Union states blue, the Confederate states grey, and the border states green.
4. Draw in or highlight major physical features such as the Mississippi River and the Appalachian Mountain Range.

CLOSURE:

1. Hand out the Presidential Inaugural Addresses to each student.
2. Read through the excerpts as a class.
3. Go over the questions as a group, and have students answer independently or as a group.

ASSESSMENT IN THIS LESSON:

1. A completed timeline of the events leading up to the Civil War.
2. The presidential inaugural addresses have been read and summarized and the related questions are answered.
Timeline Activity Sheet

Excerpt from the Inaugural Address of Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States of America

March 4, 1861

In your hands, my dissatisfied fellow countrymen, and not in mine, is the momentous issue of civil war. The Government will not assault you. You can have no conflict without being yourselves the aggressors. You have no oath registered in heaven to destroy the Government, while I shall have the most solemn one to "preserve, protect, and defend it."

Excerpt from the Inaugural Address of Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederate States of America

February 18, 1861

I enter upon the duties of the office to which I have been chosen with the hope that the beginning of our career as a Confederacy may not be obstructed by hostile opposition to our enjoyment of the separate existence and independence which we have asserted, and, with the blessing of Providence, intend to maintain. Our present condition, achieved in a manner unprecedented in the history of nations, illustrates the American idea that governments rest upon the consent of the governed, and that it is the right of the people to alter or abolish governments whenever they become destructive of the ends for which they were established.
1. What do both men seem to want? Peace or War? Provide evidence.
