

SAND CREEK, CO

NOVEMBER 29, 1864

Presented by the American Battlefield Trust

(100 men)

Sand Pits
(women and children dig in to hide)

Cheyenne-Arapaho Village
(Possible location)

Pony Herds

Howitzers
(4 guns)

Sand Creek
(dry bed)

Companies
D, K & G

Companies
C, E & G

Ranger Station

Colorado
Volunteers

CHIVINGTON
(675 Troops)

LEGEND

- TROOP MOVEMENTS
- Native Americans (Red arrow)
 - Union (Blue arrow)
- LAND FEATURES & PRESERVATION
- Native American Structures (Yellow tent icon)
 - Modern Roads (Grey line with '52' marker)
 - Preserved by the American Battlefield Trust & other Partner Organizations (Light blue shaded area)
 - Preserved by the Sand Creek Massacre National Historic Site (Green shaded area)
 - National Park Service Authorized Boundary (Dashed line)
- UPDATED MARCH 2022

© American Battlefield Trust. Map prepared by Steven Stanley.
 The historic battlefield is shown alongside modern efforts to preserve this land.
 Maps are available for download for personal use only at www.battlefields.org/maps.