

REVOLUTIONARY WAR BATTLE
LEXINGTON & CONCORD, MA
 APRIL 19, 1775
 LEXINGTON
 Presented by the American Battlefield Trust

4 After dispersing the militia, the British continue their march to Concord.

2 Captain Parker assembles approx. 50 to 70 men in Lexington Green.

3 Upon seeing the Militia assembled, Major Pitcairn deploys troops to disperse the Colonists. While advancing a shot was fired.

1 British troops on the march from Boston to Concord.

LEGEND

TROOP MOVEMENTS
 British (Red arrow)
 American (Blue arrow)

LAND FEATURES & PRESERVATION
 18th-Century Woodline (Green hatched)
 18th-Century Structures (Black square)
 18th-Century Roads (Solid line)
 18th-Century Roads no longer in existence (Dashed line)
 18th-Century Fences (Dotted line)
 Modern Roads (Grey line with 52)
 Lexington Battle Green (Green area)
 Town of Lexington Owned Properties (Brown area)

UPDATED OCTOBER 2020

AMERICAN BATTLEFIELD TRUST