

REVOLUTIONARY WAR CAMPAIGN

TEN CRUCIAL DAYS

TRENTON - PRINCETON

DECEMBER 25, 1776 - JANUARY 3, 1777

Presented by the American Battlefield Trust

Washington moves his army north. By January 6th, they arrive in Morristown for winter encampment.

Washington crosses the Delaware River on Christmas night, December 25, 1776

McConkey's Ferry

Pennington

NEW JERSEY

Princeton
MAWHOOD

On January 2, Cornwallis moves his army to meet Washington in Trenton.

Maidenhead

After discovering that Washington has moved to Princeton, Cornwallis resteps his command back to Princeton.

CORNWALLIS

SULLIVAN

After the Battle of Assunpink Creek, Washington moves his army to Princeton.

RALL
Trenton

Assunpink Creek

WASHINGTON

On December 30, Washington recrossed the Delaware River and set up defensive line on the south side of the Assunpink Creek.

Trenton Ferry

After the Battle of Trenton, Washington recrosses the Delaware River.

PENNSYLVANIA

LEGEND

TROOP MOVEMENTS
British ——— American ———

LAND FEATURES
● 18th-Century Cities/Towns

BATTLES
★ Trenton - December 26, 1776
★ Assunpink Creek - January 2, 1777
★ Princeton - January 3, 1777

— UPDATED FEBRUARY 2021 —

 AMERICAN BATTLEFIELD TRUST ★ ★ ★