The Civil War Curriculum, Goal 3

1862: Antietam & Emancipation

ANTICIPATORY SET/HOOK:

1. Write on the board or use slide three: What does “emancipation” mean?
2. As students enter the room, they will take a sticky note and write their answer on it.
3. Have students place the sticky note on the top corner of their desk or work space. This will be revisited at the end of the class.

PROCEDURE:

Print out the PowerPoint with notes prior to class. There are notes included with the slides that can be on the printed slides, but won’t be seen by your students during the presentation.

Activity 1

1. Use the Antietam and Emancipation PowerPoint to guide the lesson.
   a. Hand out the Battle of Antietam Summary, Emancipation Proclamation Excerpt, General Order 143 Excerpt, and Emancipation Proclamation Activity Sheet.
   b. These worksheets will be referred to in the PowerPoint presentation; when they are, read and discuss at that time.

Activity 2

2. Hand out the Antietam and Emancipation Essay for students to complete.

CLOSURE:

1. Have students look back at the answers on their sticky notes.
   a. Ask them if they were correct in their answers made at the beginning of class. Even of students were correct, do they know more now? What exactly did the Emancipation Proclamation do?

ASSESSMENT IN THIS LESSON:

1. Informal assessment through discussion questions within PowerPoint.
2. The statements from the Emancipation Proclamation placed in the correct order by students during the Antietam and Emancipation Activity.
3. Students have written a paragraph describing the importance of the Emancipation Proclamation and General Order 143 during the war and today on the Emancipation Essay.
Battle of Antietam Summary

LOCATION: Washington County, Maryland

DATE(S): September 17, 1862

ESTIMATED CASUALTIES (DIED, INJURED, OR CAPTURED): 22,700 total

SUMMARY: In September 1862, Confederate general Robert E. Lee left the South and moved his army into Maryland. No one could be sure exactly what he planned to do, but in an incredible stroke of luck, a copy of Lee’s plans (which had been wrapped around three cigars) was discovered by Union soldiers and given to Union general George B. McClellan. Knowing Lee’s plan, on September 17, 1862, McClellan’s army attacked Lee’s army at Antietam Creek in Maryland.

The Battle of Antietam (also called the Battle of Sharpsburg) was the bloodiest single day in American history. Lee lost 10,300 men to death, injury, or capture while McClellan lost 12,400. However, having limited reinforcements and supplies, Lee was forced to retreat, and the North declared the battle a Union victory. Even though the Union won, it did not continue to chase and fight Lee’s army. Since Lee and his army got away, the war did not end here; more battles were to come.
