The Country Goes to War

Student Note Sheet (Teacher Version)

Complete the following timeline:

Election of 1860 Winner - Abraham Lincoln

The South became fearful that this new president would abolish slavery or not support the slaveholding states

South Carolina is the first state to secede from the Union on December 20, 1861, 44 days after Lincoln is elected president.

What does secession mean? To leave the Union

Why did South Carolina secede from the United States? The non-slaveholding states were not following the law that was laid out in the Constitution and that broke the agreement that South Carolina had made in order to be part of the Union. They also felt that Lincoln was not going to support the slaveholding states.

What does South Carolina want other Southern states to do? Secede as well

Why would the other states want to do this? Because they agree with South Carolina's reason for leaving the Union.

Who does Jefferson Davis say chose to create the Confederacy? The people Does Jefferson Davis want war or peace? Peace, students should provide a quote to support this.

Does Abraham Lincoln want war or peace? What in his speech makes you believe that? Peace, students should provide a quote to support this.

Who fired at Fort Sumter?

Union

Confederacy

Why? The Confederacy wanted the Union to surrender the federal fort located just off the coast of South Carolina.

Who occupied (was located in) Fort Sumter?

Union

Confederacy

Who were the aggressors in this situation? The US or the Confederacy? Explain your answer.

The students will have to decide and use what they have learned to support their answer.
Some may say the Confederacy was the aggressor because they fired the shots. Some may say the United States was the aggressor because they refused to leave Fort Sumter after South Carolina seceded.

How did the citizens of Richmond Virginia feel about the action at Fort Sumter? The people were excited and celebrated in the streets.

Who called for troops right after the firing on Fort Sumter?

Both the Confederacy and the United States

Virginia joined the Confederacy April 17, 1861.

In April of 1861, Virginia joined the Confederacy. After Virginia joined, what city became the Confederate Capital? Richmond

Following the Battle of First Manassas (Bull Run), the governor of New York does what?

Called for more troops and for a longer volunteer period.

What does this tell you about what people thought of the war? People realized after the devastation of Manassas that the war would be much longer and cost more men then they had previously predicted.

The first land battle of the Civil War took place near Manassas, Virginia, on July 21, 1861.

At this battle, the Union Army lost to the Confederate Army.

What did citizens of both the Confederacy and the United States realize at this time? That the war was not going to be easy or end quickly.

The Civil War Trust

In James McPherson’s article, An Overview of the American Civil War he states:

The Civil War started because of uncompromising differences between the free and slave states over the power of the national government to prohibit slavery in the territories that had not yet become states. When Abraham Lincoln won election in 1860 as the first Republican president on a platform pledging to keep slavery out of the territories, seven slave states in the deep South seceded and formed a new nation, the Confederate States of America. The incoming Lincoln administration and most of the Northern people refused to recognize the legitimacy of secession. They feared that it would discredit democracy and create a fatal precedent that would eventually fragment the no-longer United States into several small, squabbling countries.

Based on your map and what McPherson says above, why do you think some of the slave holding states decided not to join the Confederacy?
