

CHESAPEAKE CAMPAIGN

APRIL 23, 1813 TO SEPTEMBER 14, 1814

Presented by the American Battlefield Trust

After burning Washington, British troops under Maj. Gen. Robert Ross withdrawal and sail to Baltimore.

British forces under Capt. James Gordon sail up the Potomac River as a diversion.

British forces under Capt. Sir Peter Parker raid along the Eastern Shore of Maryland as a diversion.

LEGEND

LAND FEATURES

- 18th-Century Cities/Towns
- 18th-Century Forts

BATTLES

- ★ Elks Landing - Apr. 29, 1813
- ★ Frenchtown - Apr. 29, 1813
- ★ Port Deposit - May 3, 1813
- ★ Principio Iron Works - May 3, 1813
- ★ Havre de Grace - May 3, 1813
- ★ Georgetown - May 5, 1813
- ★ Fredericktown - May 5, 1813
- ★ Craney Island - June 22, 1813
- ★ Hampton - June 25, 1813
- ★ Kent Island - Aug. 5, 1813
- ★ St. Michaels - Aug. 9, 1813
- ★ Queenstown - Aug. 13, 1813
- ★ Hallowing Point - June 11, 1814
- ★ Benedict - June 22, 1814
- ★ St. Leonard Creek - June 26, 1814
- ★ St. Leonard - July 2, 1814
- ★ Calverton - July 16, 1814
- ★ Huntingtown - July 17, 1814
- ★ Prince Frederick - July 19, 1814
- ★ Nomini Church - July 26, 1814
- ★ Kinsale - Aug. 3, 1814
- ★ Bladensburg - Aug. 24, 1814
- ★ Burning of Washington - Aug. 24-25, 1814
- ★ Fort Washington - Aug. 27, 1814
- ★ Chestertown - Aug. 30, 1814
- ★ Caulk's Field - Aug. 31, 1814
- ★ White House Landing - Sept. 5, 1814
- ★ North Point - Sept. 12, 1814
- ★ Baltimore - Sept. 13-14, 1814
- ★ Fort Mchenry - Sept. 13-14, 1814

UPDATED MAY 2020

AMERICAN
BATTLEFIELD
TRUST ★ ★ ★