A Facsimile Printing of the Seventh Issue of February 17, 1864

at the dedication of the seven years ago our fathers this continent, a new nation, and dedicated liberty, and dedicated that all men are creengaged in a great civil war, that nation, or any nation and so dedicated, can long no met on a great battlefield We have come to dedicate a that field, as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives, that nation might live. It is alto-ing and proper that we should a larger sense, we can not dedare not consecrated we can not this ground. The brave men, live dear, who struggled here, have comto, far above our poor power to ad-long sen-

never forget who the living, rather, to the unfinished work which you have thus far so nobly advanced.
It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increasdevotion to that cause for which they the last full measure of devotion. we here highly resolve that these not have died in vain—that under God, shall have a government—such that government by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Cup and Ball

The Cup & Ball game has been a favorite toy for many generations. Examples of the Cup & Ball game have been found all over the world from as early as the 16th Century. It consists of a wooden handle with a ball tethered to one end, and a small cup on the other end. The object of the game is to swing the ball into the cup—not an easy task!
