The Battle of the Crater – Document C

"The Black Troops" – Harpers Weekly – August 20, 1864 either great unity or instruction of the former volunteer companies, but he writes that it is now more apparent than ever that the volunteer corps are performing their duty with great zeal and fidelity. The officers of the company are all in good health, and the men are well fed and clothed. The condition of the men is better than that of the volunteer companies, but the former are in better condition than the latter. The volunteer corps are now in better condition than they were at the beginning of the campaign, and the men are well fed and clothed. The condition of the men is better than that of the volunteer corps, but the former are in better condition than the latter. The condition of the men is better than that of the volunteer corps, but the former are in better condition than the latter. The condition of the men is better than that of the volunteer corps, but the former are in better correspondence with the men of the corps. The condition of the men is better than that of the volunteer

corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the corps.

THE BLACK TROOPS.

There can be no question that the black troops in the volunteer corps are in better condition than the men of the volunteer corps. The condition of the men is better than
that of the volunteer corps, but the
former are in better condition than
the latter. The condition of the men
is better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps.

THE BLACK TROOPS.

There can be no question that the
black troops in the volunteer corps
are in better condition than the
men of the volunteer corps. The
condition of the men is better than
that of the volunteer corps, but the
former are in better condition than
the latter. The condition of the men
is better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

The condition of the men is better than that of the volunteer corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps.

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

The condition of the men is better
than that of the volunteer corps,
but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the
corps. The condition of the men is
better than that of the volunteer
corps, but the former are in better
correspondence with the men of the corps.