

	1	2	3	4	5
1. Student provides an explanation of why John Brown chose to raid Harper's Ferry
2. Student provides some of the historic events and discusses the current situation in the country leading up to the 1859 raid.
3. Student discusses reactions of people around the country, providing the two primary reactions to the raid.
4. Student makes a clear argument for one side or explains why they have not taken a side.
5. Student uses a citation from their primary source to support their argument.

Student: _____

Total Score _____

Comments: